Caring for the Earth

Sharing our creativity

Image taken from <http://lovingearth-project.uk/>

The story of the Earth, from the creation to the present day and perhaps beyond, will be told by Chris Nickolay using the Godly Play approach. It will be followed by opportunities for us to respond to the story through questions and creative activities.

There will be time to share our reflections and bring our energies together.

Come with hearts and minds prepared, and with paper and other simple artistic resources ready to hand.
